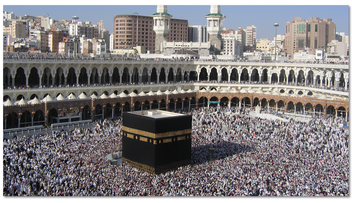
MUHAMMAD ﷺ
SEAL OF THE PROPHETS

Messenger of Allah

The Oneness of Allah



Belief in the oneness of Allah is the fundamental principle of Islam, Allah's status as the All-knowing, All-powerful Master is zealously guarded. The Islamic beliefs do not leave any possibility of any other supreme power or being. Allah is the one and only.

The prophets are held in a very high esteem in Islamic beliefs but their status is clearly defined as humans who receive r evelations from Allah and are assigned as Allah's Messengers.

The basic declaration of Islamic faith states:

"There is none worthy of worship except Allah, Muhammad is Messenger of Allah"

Muhammad as a mortal human being

With the passage of time many religions started granting their prophets or founders the status of god or at least the status of a non-human supreme being. Islam takes great care in ensuring that the status of all Prophets in general and Holy Prophet Muhammad (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) in particular is well understood and there is no way for the followers to grant any prophet the status of god.

"Say, 'I am only a man like yourselves; but I have received the revelation that your God is only One God..." (18:111)

"Say, 'I have no power to do good or harm to myself, save as Allah please. And if I had knowledge of the unseen, I should have secured abundance of good; and evil would not have touched me. I am only a warner and a bearer of good tidings to a people who believe.'" (7:189)

"And I say not to you, 'I possess the treasures of Allah,' nor do I know the unseen, nor say I, 'I am an angel.' Nor say I concerning those whom your eyes despise, 'Allah will not bestow any good upon them' — Allah knows best whatever is in their minds — Surely, I should then be of the unjust." (11:32)

"And Muhammad is only a Messenger. Verily, all Messengers have passed away before him. If then he die or be slain, will you turn back on your heels?..." (3:145)

"I am but a human being like yourselves. I forget things just like you do. So if I forget something, remind me." (Bukhari)

"Do not exalt me like the Christians exalted the Son of Mary. I am but a servant, so call me Allah's servant and Messenger." (Bukhari)
