In Islam, Jesus (peace be upon him), known as Isa ibn Maryam, is honored as a mighty prophet and the Messiah sent to the Israelites. Contrary to some beliefs, Islam does not view Jesus as the son of God or divine. He lived as a prophet, not as God. His teachings centered on worshipping one God, righteous living, and humility — not the Trinity.

"Those certainly are disbelievers who say: Allah is the third of three."

— Holy Quran 5:74

"She said, 'My Lord, how shall I have a son when no man has touched me?' He said, 'Such is Allah. He creates what He pleases.'"

— Holy Quran 3:48

"I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth..."

— John 16:12-13

This prophecy was fulfilled in Prophet Muhammad (SA) — the "Spirit of Truth" and the "Comforter" — whose teachings perfected divine guidance for all humanity.

WHAT REALLY HAPPENED

THE HIDDEN CHAPTERS OF THE LIFE OF JESUS

Jesus didn't die on the cross...

He was taken down alive and was cared for by his devoted followers — the first healing, not resurrection.

"They slew him not, nor crucified him, but he was made to appear to them like one crucified"

— Holy Quran 4:158

After surviving the crucifixion, Jesus recovered and journeyed east — seeking the Lost Tribes of Israel. He completed his mission in peace, not in mystery.

The faith and practices of early followers — including his mother and female disciples — reflected modesty and devotion, much like Muslim women today.

Jesus prayed with his head bowed to the ground (Matthew 26:39), and when called "good," he humbly replied, "No one is good except God alone" (Mark 10:18).

His life and teachings mirror values that Islam still preserves — humility, worship, and complete submission to God.
