Can people of different faiths share one city?

ميثاق المدينة

The Charter of Madinah

“Verily, Allah enjoins justice, and the doing of good to others; and giving like kindred”

HOLY QURAN 16:91

ONE CITY, MANY FAITHS

Soon after arriving in Madinah, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of God be upon him) drew up a written agreement between the Muslims, the city’s Jewish tribes, and its other clans. Each group kept its own religion and customs, all pledged to defend the city together, and disputes were to be settled with justice. Many historians regard it as one of the earliest written constitutions.

LESSON FOR TODAY

Peace between neighbours of different faiths rests on agreed rights and promises kept.
