What Others Have Said

“As regards all standards by which human greatness may be measured, we may well ask, is there any man greater than he?”

Alphonse de Lamartine

A Historian's Assessment

In his 1978 book The 100, American author Michael H. Hart ranked Muhammad (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) first among the most influential figures in history, describing him as “the only man in history who was supremely successful on both the religious and secular levels.” He noted that centuries after his death, the Prophet’s profound influence remains powerful and pervasive across the globe.
